3 ways Christianity is different from other religions

This includes understanding the universe, and acting, speaking, and living in the right manner and with the right intentions.

How to get to heaven

How can we finite sinners ever hope to please God by our deeds? There are four requirements prescribed for the one who follows this path: 1 discrimination of the eternal from the non-eternal; 2 no attachment to the things belonging to this or any other world; 3 possession of six virtues: calmness, equanimity, turning away from sense-objects, forbearance, concentration and faith in the doctrine; and 4 longing for release. The fundamental idea contained in the English word salvation, and the Latin salvatio and Greek sōtēria from which it derives, is that of saving or delivering from some dire situation.

Conflicting beliefs about salvation within Christianity

Unitarian Universalists draw from all major world religions and many different theological sources and have a wide range of beliefs and practices.

This literally means that there is only one god, and that one is wholesome, inclusive of the whole universe. If someone persists in rebellion toward him, manifested through indifference or desire for independence, God does not force him to enter into the kingdom of heaven. This proves the full incarnation of God the Son.
