Chuugoku Senseijutsu (Game)

The atmosphere here is totally different to that of Takeshita-dori Street; it was very calm. The main shrine of Izumo Shrine is a huge building, boasting a height of around 24m, and it is said that all the deities of Japan gather here once each year. There are many different establishments, including cafes and tranquil shops, so you can spend a lovely afternoon there.

This castle, built in the 17th century, is made of wood, and is extremely well preserved. I was truly impressed at the skill that had gone into making the 500 statues before my eyes at Rakanji Temple.

Chūgoku region

You can enjoy the quiet scenery of the courtyard, which gives the feeling of being in the middle of a picture. I ate shojin ryori refined vegetarian Buddhist cuisine while enjoying the wonderful views of the five-story pagoda from a private room at the restaurant. You should certainly visit here to understand this place.

SHIMANE

I was very surprised by the comfortable and efficient operations there. In 2010, it had a population of 7,563,428.

Lastly, I recommend Shibuya Hikarie. Shibuya is also one of the main stations in the Tokyo metropolis. I enjoyed the various dishes at the buffet-style breakfast.
